Grammatically, a resolution is a single sentence with only one period at the end.

The clauses should all be separate independent clauses ending in a semicolon and the connecting conjunction ("and") or appropriate phrase ("be it"), separated from the following clause by a blank line.

A preamble, consisting of "Whereas" clauses, is non-binding and not necessary or required. When used, the preamble clauses should avoid controversial statements or unsupported assertions that may draw attention and perhaps support from the resolving clause(s). Only the "Resolved," and "Ordered" clause(s) contain the binding and operative substance of the resolution.

SAMPLE DPH COUNTY 2024 CONVENTION PROPOSED RESOLUTION:

Unless stated in the resolution itself, a resolution does not sunset. It is effective indefinitely until rescinded or amended.

<sup>1</sup> The Title briefly describes the intent of the resolution. Do not use all caps for the title or the words, Whereas, Resolved, or Ordered.

<sup>2</sup> Use the Hawaiian ‘okina and kahakō in Hawaiian words & names as appropriate (e.g. Hawai‘i, O‘ahu Kaua‘i). The ‘okina is not an apostrophe. It should resemble a miniature “6” in superscript. It can be made by the left single quotation mark.

<sup>3</sup> The first words after the word “Resolved,” should be “That the _____ County Democrats of the Democratic Party of Hawai‘i” - not “by the _____ County Democratic Party ...” or ‘that some other entity’ not under the control of the Democratic Party of Hawai‘i take a action or a position.

<sup>4</sup> Instead of “Resolved”, transmission directions to staff should use “Ordered”. Do not stipulate that the copies be “certified.”

<sup>6</sup> Refer to the county bylaws and/or convention rules for submission requirements such as list of supporters, etc; otherwise, the maker and the second need to be county convention delegates.

NOTE ALSO: According to State DPH Convention Standing Rule 6.2, “Resolutions adopted at the 2024 County Conventions expressing an action or position of statewide and/or national implication and/or that provide for their transmission to the State Convention Resolutions Committee shall be accepted once properly re-formatted to be coming from the DPH, and transmitted by the respective County's Secretary to the Convention Resolutions Committee if received by Friday, April 19, 2024 by 5:00 p.m. along with their draft County Convention minutes”
